LALEREK MUTIN

A document dated 19/4/1990 from Dili and signed by a FRETILIN cadre,Lahusic, relates about the continuation of the event that was reported on "NEWSBRIEFS" of June (No.1). The documment is read as following :

"20/3/1990 : The commander of the Commandos Unit (Ind.) of Viqueque went to check the tragedy in Lalerek Mutin. Candido Amaral was buried. The commander gave a bag of rice to the widow,Luzia Amaral and her children.

Later he made a report and presented it to the head of the dis - trict and the staffs. He alleged on the report that the three persons were tortured because they contacted FRETILIN.

Candido Amaral was shot to death because he fled to his home to take the gun secretly kept by him."

"30/3/1990 : the head of Viqueque's district,Let.Col.Inf. Yosep Hendro Soemarsono accompanied to Lalerek Mutin 31 persons who refuged at KODIM (district Command) on 29 March of 1990 because of fearing.

"31/3/1990 : the Indonesian commander of the 86th Unit of Baucau, Major Jecky went to Dili and promised to the "governor" to punish his soldiers who executed and tortured the mentioned people. He also promised to give a subsidy of Rupees 200,000,rice and clothes to the relatives of Candido.

1/4/1990 : the International Red Cross went to Viqueque hospital to investigate the problem by inquiring the injured people."

GUERRILLAS ATTACK BORDER REGION

Seven Indonesian soldiers of the 721th battalion were killed on May 3rd by guerrillas of the Second Autonomous Company commanded by Venancio Ferraz, in the village of Mape,located in the southest of the border.

Military equipment were seized including six automatic riffles of 7,62mm,LT FAL, Belgium made.

In Maubara, a town located in the northest of the border,four residents,Felix da Costa,José dos Santos, Francisco do Carmo and Custodio da Silva Nunes were arrested by soldiers. So far their where - abouts are unknown. They were allegedly accused by the Indonesian soldiers of contacting FRETILIN. The disappearances come up following the guerrilla's activities in the border region,East-West Timor.

In Dili a resident of Audian (a quarter ),Frederico Magno Sarmento,(30) was arrested by soldiers in May. He was accused of having links with the guerrillas.

Another Timorese,Hermenegildo Filomeno Saldanha da Conceição also known as Amau, taxi driver, living in Taibesse (Dili) in front of the Indonesian military centre was arrested by soldiers of the region command (KOREM) at the end of May. He was tortured and had the ears cut.

EXTERNATO S.JOSE SCHOOL

The FRETILIN information Office in Lisbon,have also received from the FRETILIN clandestine network a confidential documment from the Indonesian military Region Command in Bali to the Special Operational Command for Security in East Timor (KOOPSKAM).

The documment is intitled "OPERASI NUSRA III A TAHUN 1990" that consists of getting informations about the school of Externato S.Jose in Dili. The FRETILIN clandestine organization, stated that the Indo - nesian military authorities are trying for many years to finish the school and the present documment certify their preocupation to find out a new form to finish it.

The students of the Externato school have been threatened and the schoolmaster was "substituted".

Many teachers abandoned their jobs due to the Indonesians threatens.
